

superfastCPA

WEBINAR ACTION GUIDE

To be filled out BEFORE the training starts...

www.superfastcpa.com

Fill Out This Page BEFORE the Webinar

This is completely confidential... only YOU will see it.

The questions below might seem somewhat “intense”, but taking a few minutes to really reflect and answer the questions honestly will be required at some point anyways to help you get very clear on what it will take, and what you’re willing to do to pass your CPA exams.

1) Currently, I’m this satisfied with my situation:

- ☐ I’m 100% satisfied and content.
- ☐ I’m doing fine but there are some changes I’d like to make.
- ☐ I’m not doing great at this time.
- ☐ I’m very unhappy with things.

2) If I could wave a magic wand and make 3 changes in my life as it relates above, they would be the following:

3) If I made these changes, I’d have the following short-term benefits within the next 3 months:

Fill Out This Page BEFORE the Webinar

4) Making those changes would have the following long-term benefits:

5) My biggest struggles in achieving my goals are:

6) Things I'm willing to do and/or give up to accomplish my goals:

7) I'm ready to show up for this webinar and make changes happen:

- ☐ Yes, I'm ready to make it happen!
- ☐ No, I'm not ready to improve my situation.

On the webinar you'll learn the strategies to pass your CPA exams quickly & efficiently, but the questions above help you "set the stage" to get the most out of the training. I'll see you there! - Nate

Fill Out This Page DURING the Training

The 3 big challenges of the CPA exam are:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

When it comes to the traditional study approach, it's common for a 30-minute video lecture to _____ or more.

Also, this means you _____ each lesson only _____ on the way through, and then _____ during the final review. This means you're _____ each topic just _____.

Step 1

Step 1 is D.W.M. which stands for _____.

If you were trying to get better at basketball, would you _____, or _____?

Most people spend _____ of their study time on _____.

“Textbook context ≠ _____.”

Your studying should always be _____, and almost never _____.

The best first step is to jump straight to _____ for a topic, which we refer to as “_____.”

Fill Out This Page DURING the Training

The idea is that you are getting a _____, then the mastery comes from _____.

This way you're _____ of your time on _____.

This also solves _____ and _____ in advance.

Step 2

Step 2 is D.R.R. which stands for _____.

Why spend _____ if _____?

You spend the last _____ of each study session on _____.

Then you do _____ in all the _____ of your day.

A deep understanding of the topics from in “_____” from _____.

Constant _____ of all _____ is how you pass the CPA exams.

Fill Out This Page DURING the Training

Step 3

Step 3 is a routine that _____.

Trying to study 3-5 hours after work = _____,
_____, and it's hard to _____.

When your entire _____ is _____ + _____, you will quickly experience _____ and _____.

So a routine that F.Y.L. is a _____ main session, and then _____ (which you already do!)

This means you are done studying by _____,
which means you get _____!

Step 4

Step 4 is C.M.S., which stands for _____.

Effective CPA study is very similar to _____,
which needs _____ and _____.

This can be done from _____, without requiring
_____.

Will it work better to _____ each topic _____ or _____?

Fill Out This Page DURING the Training

Step 5

Step 5 is R.E.S.T., which stands for _____.

Being _____ through this process is _____.

Two versions of 6pm: _____ vs

_____.

You can _____ and still _____, so
_____?

Doing the _____ + _____ gives you your _____ back, so you can _____.

Traditional Approach vs the SFCPA Approach:

Just describe the main benefits to you personally that you got from the training: